Psalm 19

Johann S. Bach

Flute(optional)

Organ

The first system of the score consists of two staves. The top staff is for the Flute (optional) and the bottom staff is for the Organ. Both are in 4/4 time. The Flute part begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The Organ part begins with a treble and bass clef and a key signature of one flat. The music is written in a simple, melodic style with many eighth and sixteenth notes.

The second system continues the musical notation. It includes the Flute (optional) and Organ parts from the first system, plus a new part for the Choir. The Choir part is written in a treble clef and begins with a 'S' (Soprano) and an 'A' (Alto) line. The lyrics 'The heavens de-clare Thy' are written below the choir part. The organ part continues with a similar melodic line.

The third system continues the musical notation. It includes the Flute (optional) and Organ parts from the first system, plus the Choir part. The lyrics 'glo - ry, the fir - ma-ment Thy power; — Day un - to day the sto - ry re -' are written below the choir part. The organ part continues with a similar melodic line.

The fourth system continues the musical notation. It includes the Flute (optional) and Organ parts from the first system, plus the Choir part. The lyrics 'peats from hour to hour. Night un - to night re - ply - ing, pro - claims in ev - ery' are written below the choir part. The organ part continues with a similar melodic line.
